We Promote Ballroom Dancing!

Your Pres Says

Dear Fellow Dancers,

The day the ladies have looked forward to and the gentlemen have dreaded will soon arrive – the Fashion Show at Ballroom Sunday on August 22. Several ladies have picked out gowns to model for 15 to 20 seconds as they waltz, rumba, foxtrot, or Tango with their partner.

A word to the guys: OK, so this is not exactly our scene, but don't rule it out. You bring a lady to this and you get big points. She will definitely owe you – a new set of golf clubs, a car, a boat, or perhaps a plane. Just smile and clap a lot and all will be well.

By the way, I can't help noticing how upbeat and sociable Ballroom Sunday has become. What a marvelous atmosphere in which to hold a dance!

Be sure to sign up for the Black Tie on September 18th where we can continue to eat and chat with old and new friends and polish off a perfect evening with lots of dancing.

Finally, our National Ballroom Dance Week Lessons is the perfect time to introduce someone to the wonderful world of ballroom dancing.

I look forward to seeing you at the YMCA in Clemmons on the 22nd! Bring a friend!

Enjoy the Dance, Tom Rucker

Black Tie Dinner Dance

The Big Event of our year is rapidly approaching – our annual Black Tie Dinner Dance. The event last year was such a success that we are repeating it this year. We'll have the same great floor in the same beautiful venue with the same wonderful caterers. DJ Craig has agreed to once again provide the outstanding dance music. Based on the comments from last year we'll have the same great friend, too! (Of course, ladies, it is quite acceptable to get a new gown for the occasion.) However, if you missed last year, we'll make room for you, too. Just use the reservation form inside and mail your reservation right away.

Dance Fashion Show

Our August Ballroom Sunday on August 22 is not a wedding, but it will feature something old, something new, something borrowed, and some beautiful dresses. We'll have a Dance Fashion Show after announcements. The Show will feature several ladies wearing vintage (with a past?) dresses as they dance a few seconds with their partners.

Randy and Sherryl Peters’ Adult Bible Study Class at First Baptist Church just completed a 4-lesson beginner Swing session. If you are a member of a church, civic, or social organization that might be interested in conducting a similar program for any of the ballroom dances, contact Randy at piedmontncoutreach@triad.rr.com.

Beginner Lessons

Our Annual NBDW Beginner Lessons “Meet the Local Dance Community” will begin on Monday, August 23. This is a fabulous opportunity for new dancers to meet the local instructors and to learn five of the basic ballroom dances. Anyone who joins Piedmont NC USA Dance (and anyone – such as John & Karen Sykes, (rt.) who has joined in the past year) will receive these lessons free. Thanks to our wonderful dance instructors for their participation and support!

Wish I'd Known That

Question: How do we sign-up for the refreshment committee for our dances?

Answer: We don't. Contributions of finger food to our Ballroom Sunday refreshment table are strictly voluntary. When you feel the urge to make or purchase some treat and share it with your dancing friends, please do. If food distracts you from the pleasures of the dance, then wait until another time to bring something. All edible contributions are appreciated and, contrary to Hubert and Helen's wishes, they do not have to contain chocolate. Tom likes things like little sandwiches (although he's even more impressed if it's on a pretty dish) and Rita likes gluten-free crackers and cheese or fruits or nuts. As long as Kathy brings the beautiful flowers I'm happy.

Question: How do I check out a video or DVD from our library and how long can I keep it?

Answer: Any member of Piedmont NC USA Dance can check out a video or DVD by simply removing the blue card inside the case, printing their name, telephone number and current date on the card. Give the card to the person at the registration table. The video or DVD can be kept until the next dance at no charge to the member. Return it at the next dance at the registration table. If you cannot attend the dance, return it by mail to the address on the case. In an emergency call the number listed on the case. Forgetting costs $10 per month. If you lose a video or DVD, you will be expected to pay the replacement cost.

Question: How are our leaders chosen?

Answer: A very timely question! In the past our officers were chosen annually by election at our Annual Business Meeting in November. As of 2010 our chapter will have a 9-members Board elected every 2 years at our Annual Business Meeting. This is the year of change, we will have to merge the two concepts and change our Bylaws at the Annual Meeting this year. Stay tuned.

Truisms

- The dancer brings something beautiful to music without disrupting the beat.
- We are echoes of the dancers and dances to which we are exposed.
- The part of dancers that is most sensitive may be their feelings – be careful.
- Do your best to dance up to your ability.
- For me, dancing represents the real luxury of life.
- Good dancers have 2 special bones: a wishbone and a funny bone.
- How easy to be happy in the middle of music and dance.
- A dance today is worth two tomorrow.
- The only reason to do a dance step is for the joy of it.
- You don't need or have to be a flawless partner to enjoy the dance.
- Sometimes just let your muscles dance while your brain takes a break.
- In dance you can get better without ever being sick.
- I cannot control what my partner does. I can control what I do.
- To fully appreciate a great and beautiful dance may require as much time as creating it.
- To dance like a butterfly practice like a bee.
- I dance, therefore I am.
